All Saints

This Sunday is an important Sunday in the life of our church as we remember so many loved ones who have passed in the last year. I recognized it has been difficult for those who were closest to our Saints and have heard the hearts of the members of our congregation. Sitting at our dinner table you've told me stories of those whom you've loved. You've shared about their lives before and after Sunday services. Every week a name will come up and a flattering comment will be made of how loving someone was through their generous nature. Not a day passes when they are not remembered in some way in the life of the church as we strive to honor their memories. "We thank you for those we love but see no more" is the phrase we read in our Service of Committal. When we say those words in celebration of their life, we are praising our heavenly father for the time we have while also asking Him for the grace to face our future which is surely different without the person we love. God's grace and mercy never fails, in the depths he is there, in the heights he is there, we cannot escape is never ending love for us and for those who we "see no more". Because of this we celebrate our Saints and the memories we shared. Because of this we pray for you as you ready yourself to remember the ones you've loved so deeply but see no more. We've thanked God for their service to the body of Christ, the love they have shared, and the memories they have left behind. We remember how their love has brought us where we are today, and we love one another knowing we are not alone as we celebrate all our Saints.

Keep The Faith,
